

Welcome to Aisling Cahill & Co., Solicitors

Aisling Cahill & Co., Solicitors is a progressive & modern general practice located in the heart of Dungarvan, Co. Waterford. Our goal is to focus on the client to ensure we continue to meet & exceed expectations by:

- Building & maintaining a caring & personal relationship with our clients, no matter how big or small
- Providing a transparent fee structure
- Investing in technology to support the business
- Looking after our clients' interests as if they were our own

In buying, selling, remortgaging, leasing and any other land transactions, we will supply a same-day estimate on enquiry. We simply need the price of the property and its general location. The estimate will almost always be the same as the final Fee Note, because most of the costs are foreseeable.

In Family Law, we always try to settle matters fairly, but we will put forward a robust case for our clients if necessary. You will find that our costs are reasonable.

In Litigation, we employ specialist barristers to present your case, but again, we always try to settle cases fairly.
